

The diagram shows a cross-section of a three-layered system. The top layer is labeled 'A', the middle layer is labeled 'B' and is shaded with diagonal lines, and the bottom layer is labeled 'D'. A label 'C' is placed between layers A and B, and another 'C' is placed between layers B and D. The layers are separated by horizontal lines.